KCUE, Inauguration of the 15th secretary general, Lee Kyoung-hee

- Lee Kyoung-hee (59) has been inaugurated as the 15th secretary general of the Korean Council for University Education (KCUE), a consortium of four-year universities in the country.
- On August 13, the KCUE held a board meeting where it conducted document and interview evaluations for the candidates recommended by the Secretary General Selection Committee, and elected the 15th secretary general through a direct secret ballot.
- The newly appointed secretary general Lee was officially inaugurated on September 10, following the approval of the Minister of Education and the appointment by Chairman of the KCUE, Park Sang-gue (President of Chung-Ang University). His official term lasts for three years, until September 9, 2027.
